MEDIA ADVISORY

Attempt Capital Murder Suspect Still Wanted

On June 30, 2004 Martin Aragon was involved in a police chase that ended in the 2400 Blk of Orr St. The driver, Aragon, exited his car and began to fire several shots towards Officer Mark Valero. Officer Valero returned fire and it's still believed that Aragon was struck by at least one round. Aragon was able to flee the scene and has not been seen since the incident. Officer Valero's patrol car was struck several times by the Aragon's rounds, which were fired from a high-powered rifle.

The San Antonio Police Department is again asking the public for their assistance in locating Aragon. Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Aragon is urged to call SAPD at 207-7635 or by calling Crime Stoppers at 224-STOP. Aragon is still considered armed and extremely dangerous.
